

together

2015 San Fernando Valley Community Benefit Grants
Total: $250,000

Boys & Girls Club of San Fernando Valley received funding to support a community garden, cooking class, healthy snacks, and after school fitness program for low income children in Pacoima.

Casa Esperanza received funding to conduct a physical activity and nutrition program in a safe environment for low-income, underserved Latino families in the Blythe Street area in the San Fernando Valley.

The Center for Individual and Family Counseling received funding to provide low-income at-risk youth and their families with school-based mental health counseling at five northeast San Fernando Valley schools.

Center for Living and Learning to provide vulnerable individuals with barriers to accessing healthcare and health insurance with navigation and case management services connecting them to partnering agencies.

Community Integration Services, Inc to provide case management, health education, and close monitoring of medi-cal, medicare eligible Latino seniors with diabetes in the East San Fernando Valley.

El Centro de Amistad received funding to provide undocumented, uninsured Latino adults with mental health counseling services in the San Fernando Valley while linking them to long-term support.

El Nido Family Centers received funding to support their Teen Parent Family Services program increasing access to healthcare, wellness education, health promotion and disease prevention for disadvantaged pregnant/parenting teens and their babies in the San Fernando Valley.

Haven Hills received funding to provide culturally and linguistically appropriate counseling, healthcare navigation, and case management at their domestic violence Crisis Shelter.

Hands for Hope received funding to support a health and wellness after-school program for low-income children in North Hollywood.

Hope of the Valley Rescue Mission received funding to support case management and navigation services for homeless individuals at their Recuperative Care Center in the San Fernando Valley.

Kids Community Clinic of Burbank received funding to provide free dental screenings and preventive treatments at San Fernando Valley schools thus linking low income, uninsured children to dental care.

KAISER PERMANENTE®

LA Family Housing received funding for case management and navigation services linking their homeless clients to mental, dental, and substance abuse resources to ensure their success in permanent housing.

Meeting Each Need with Dignity (MEND) received funding to support their chronic disease management program for low-income, uninsured Latino clients in the East San Fernando Valley.

New Directions for Youth received funding to support Health Watch, an obesity prevention program promoting physical fitness, healthy lifestyles and good nutrition for low-income at-risk youth who are disproportionately affected by childhood obesity.

Northeast Valley Health Corporation received funding to support increased access to medical, dental, and behavioral health for students at the San Fernando High School Teen Health Center.

Penny Lane Centers received funding to provide at risk young girls receiving services through their mental health clinic in the San Fernando Valley with educational workshops on teen pregnancy and domestic violence prevention along with referrals to prenatal care as needed.

San Fernando Community Health Center received funding to partner with the City of San Fernando and California State University Northridge kinesiology students to support nutrition and cooking classes and a physical activity program for low income fathers and children in the City of San Fernando.

Socrates Opportunity Scholarship Foundation (SOS Mentor) received funding to support the Imagine HEALTH program, a mentoring program that promotes healthy eating and active living while training high school students to then mentor middle school students while incorporating advocacy efforts for a healthy school environment in the San Fernando Valley.

Students Run LA received funding to support a training conference for the volunteer SRLA teacher/leaders with information on nutrition, health, and safe training practices to help at risk youth train to run the Los Angeles Marathon.

The Teen Project received funding to support mental health services, case management, and supportive housing for at-risk, homeless young women in the San Fernando Valley.

Tierra del Sol Foundation received funding to provide healthy eating active living nutrition and physical fitness programming to developmentally disabled adults.

Valley Care Community Consortium received funding to support a faith-based approach to addressing nutrition education and obesity prevention at three churches in the San Fernando Valley incorporating policy and environmental change approaches.

Valley Community Healthcare received funding to provide expand dental health services for underserved, uninsured patients in the San Fernando Valley.

Valley Family Center received funding to support the Culturally Competent Counseling Program which provides individual, couple, and family therapy to low income children and adults in the San Fernando Valley.

The Village Family Services received funding to provide mental health, peer support, and life-skills support services to homeless, at-risk youth at their Transition Age Youth (TAY) Drop-In Center co-located at Valley Community Healthcare Teen Clinic.

YMCA - East & Mid Valley Family received funding to support Active Kids/Active Families, a healthy eating active living program modeled after KP Kids, to low income children and families with direct referrals from Title I LAUSD school nurses.

together

2015 Santa Clarita Valley
Community Benefit Grants
Total: $62,626

Boys & Girls Club of Santa Clarita Valley received funding to encourage low income youth in the Santa Clarita Valley to adopt healthy lifestyles through their half hour hustle after school program, provision of healthy snacks, cooking classes, and team and recreational sports.

Bridge to Home received funding to expand its Healthy Lives Medical and Dental programs with a Health Navigator providing on site coordination and case management for homeless individuals in the Santa Clarita Valley connecting them to clinical care and helping clients establish medical homes.

Carousel Ranch received funding to provide equestrian therapy and physical exercise for children with special needs who are at risk of obesity resulting from a sedentary lifestyle.

Child & Family Center received funding to provide school-based mental health support and counseling for children showing early signs of behavioral health problems in elementary school.

Domestic Violence Center of Santa Clarita received funding to provide on-site mental health counseling support to victims of domestic violence and their children at the emergency shelter.

Samuel Dixon Family Health Center received funding to provide a diabetes management program for low income uninsured female patients in the Santa Clarita Valley.

Santa Clarita Valley Senior Center received funding to provide case management, health & wellness programming, and screenings to low income seniors in the Santa Clarita Valley.

Santa Clarita Valley Youth Project received funding to provide access to campus-based mental health services such as support groups and peer counseling for at-risk junior and high school students in the Santa Clarita Valley.

Single Mother's Outreach received funding to provide case management and coordination of social services and mental health services for low income mother headed households in the Santa Clarita Valley.

Special Olympics – Santa Clarita Valley Region received funding to support health and fitness programming for individuals with intellectual disabilities at high risk of obesity in the Santa Clarita Valley.

KAISER PERMANENTE®