NEW SAN DIEGO MEDICAL CENTER

The future of health in San Diego
We’re reimagining care in Southern California with the new San Diego Medical Center. From small details that enhance comfort to technology that makes care more effective, this state-of-the-art facility will offer new ways to help keep you happy and healthy. Here’s a look at what you’ll find:

- Continuing care
- Dermatology*
- Emergency Department
- General medicine
- Home and hospice care*
- Interventional radiology*
- Kaiser Permanente Family Birth Center
- Neonatal intensive care unit
- Neurology*
- Nuclear medicine*
- Obstetrics-gynecology*
- Pathology*
- Pediatrics*
- Respiratory therapy
- Surgery*
  - General
  - Head and neck
  - Neurological
  - Spine
  - Thoracic
  - Vascular
- Urology*

*By referral only

OPENING APRIL 25, 2017

Kaiser Permanente San Diego Medical Center
9455 Clairemont Mesa Blvd.
San Diego, CA 92123

KP.org/sandiego
- 617,215 square feet
- 321 beds
- 10 operating rooms
- 1,462 parking spaces
- 4 acres of outdoor healing gardens and walking paths
- Easy access to freeway
- Lab and pharmacy under one roof
- Robotic surgery

- On track to earn LEED for Healthcare Platinum certification for lower energy and water use
  - Renewable electricity, heat, and cooling
  - 28% less energy costs per year
  - 40% lower water use per year

An innovative care experience

The San Diego Medical Center features several new technologies to support our patients’ health and wellness, including:

- Interactive single-patient rooms with 75-inch monitors, on-demand education and entertainment, and room controls
- Virtual fall prevention, pain level monitoring, and caregiver alerts to help put the patient at the center of round-the-clock care
- Dynamic lighting system that mimics daylight for improved energy and sleep patterns