

Fontana Medical Center

Kaiser Permanente's new state-of-the-art Fontana Medical Center Hospital provides affordable, high-quality health care to members in the central Inland Empire service area.

General Facts:

- Size: Nearly 490,000 square feet
- Hospital capacity: 314 beds
- Emergency Department: 51 beds
- Central utility plant: 22,775 square feet
- Located at the southern end of existing Fontana Medical Center
- Opened in May 2013

Administration:

- Greg Christian
Executive Director
- David Quam, MD
Area Medical Director
- Annie Russell, RN, MBA
Chief Administrative Officer
- Ray Hahn
Chief Operating Officer
- Toni Andersen, MBA, BSN, BS
Nurse Executive

Specialty Services:

- Cardiac Catheterization Laboratory
- Cardiac Surgery Services*
- Intensive Care Unit
- Labor and Delivery
- Neonatal Intensive Care Unit
- Pediatric Intensive Care Unit
- Pediatrics
- Surgery

Green Features:

- Energy-efficient electrical, air, and plumbing systems
- Use of reclaimed water for landscaping and cooling towers
- Dual-paned glazing on all exterior windows
- Furnishings and fixtures that use fewer toxic chemicals
- White-colored roof that absorbs less heat to help reduce interior cooling

Interesting Facility Facts:

- Number of light fixtures: 11,120
- Amount of line voltage wiring: 650 miles
- Amount of fiber optics: 6 miles
- Total length of all water piping: 53 miles

Address and Directions:

9961 Sierra Ave.
Fontana, CA 92335
Located off the 10 Freeway at the Sierra Avenue exit.

For more information, please contact:

Public Affairs: 909-427-5269

*Coming in 2014

kp.org/fontana