The Kaiser Permanente NW Summer Internship Program is a fantastic way to welcome a diverse workforce of early careerists and future leaders. Interns represent the best of what the future workforce has to offer as they ignite innovation and disrupt healthcare. The integrated Talent Planning team is honored to lead the charge to diversify Kaiser Permanente NW’s workforce by recruiting highly-qualified individuals.

— Waleed Sadruddin, Director, Equity, Inclusion & Diversity

“This was my third year hosting an intern and every year I learn so much from them. Their energy is infectious and they always come with new innovative ways of doing things.”

— LaSheila Rotchford, Clinical Quality and Optimization Program Manager - Support Services

All plans offered and underwritten by Kaiser Foundation Health Plan of the Northwest. 500 NE Multnomah St., Suite 100, Portland, OR 97232.
We offer internship opportunities to two levels of students

Graduate
A graduate intern is someone who has earned a bachelor’s degree and is pursuing additional education. Graduate interns work 40 hours per week and receive competitive pay.

Undergraduate
An undergraduate intern has completed high school or a G.E.D. and is in the process of earning an associate’s or bachelor’s degree. To be eligible, you must have completed at least 31 credits. Undergraduate interns work either 20 or 40 hours per week and receive competitive pay.

How to apply

1. Starting Monday, February 11, 2019 through Friday, March 15, 2019, apply at jobs.kp.org for an internship in a field that meets your professional aspirations with responsibilities and requirements that peak your interest. Applying early is encouraged. Do not wait until the last minute!

2. To be notified about upcoming positions, create a KP Profile by visiting jobs.kp.org and set your preferences.

3. If you are selected for an interview, our Integrated Talent Planning Recruiters will contact you directly, and walk you through the next steps in the process.

Final selections for the program will be made no later than Friday, May 24, 2018.

Please note, students can apply to more than one position.
